

Hitchin Historical Society Library Catalogue

Books and journals in the Society's library are available to members and are borrowed and returned at monthly meetings of the Society in Church House, Hitchin.

A small number of works are for reference purposes only, on request by bona fide researchers among the members. These are mostly works by Reginald Hine, the 'Hitchin Historian' and are long out of print.

All of the Society's own publications are added to the Library and other relevant works are bought as they are published.

Donations, of course, are always most welcome, provided they fit within the categories of the collection, i.e. History of Hitchin and Hertfordshire and general books on local history, especially on research into the subject.
